▣ By T

▣ By Bus

The MBTA #66 bus costs 90¢ exact change and stops at Harvard Square, Coolidge Corner, and on Harvard St. in front of the church.

From Boston College

Take the BC shuttle to the Green D line and take it to Brookline Village.

From Boston University

Take the B line inbound to Kenmore and catch the D line outbound to Brookline Village. There is a bus pick-up at Boston University on Sundays.

From Harvard University

Take the MBTA #66 bus, either in front of the JFK School of Government on JFK St. or just south of the Cambridge, Common, near Johnston Gate. You can also take the Red line into Park Street and the Green D line out to Brookline Village, but it will take longer. There is also a bus pickup from Harvard on Sundays.

From MCP

Take the Green D line out to Brookline Village.

From MIT

Take the Red line inbound or the #1 bus to the Green D line and go outbound to Brookline Village.

From Tufts

Take the Red line from Davis Square to Park Street, then take the Green D line westbound out to Brookline Village. There is a bus pickup at Tufts on Sundays.

From Wellesley College

There will generally be a ride from Wellesley. When there is not, there are two ways:

1. On Weekends: Take the Senate bus to Harvard. Then take the MBTA #66 bus, either in front of the JFK School of Government on JFK St. or just south of the Cambridge, Common, near Johnston Gate. You can also take the Red line into Park Street and the Green D line out to Brookline Village, but it will take longer.

2. On Weekdays: Take the exchange bus to MIT. Then take the Red line inbound or the #1 bus to the Green D line and go outbound to Brookline Village.
